FINANCIAL. The course of gold continues downward, opening in New York yesterday at 10234, and closing at 10234, while Memphis brokers will only pay 101 for it. The New York Bulletin, of Thursday, says: "The most important part of the foreign financial news to-day was that which reports the withdrawal of £500,030 bullion from the Bank of Englaad, and says that £170,000 or $850,000, is for shipment to New York. Sterling exchange here now is low enough to warrant importof gold." Our bankers had nothing row to shipment to New York. Sterling exchange here now is low enough to warrant importof gold."
